PHOTOGRAPHY MASTERCLASS @ THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF SINGAPORE

With Alex Webb, Rebecca Norris Webb, and David Chickey

Do you know where you're going next with your photography -- or where it's taking you? This intensive weekend workshop will help photographers begin to understand their own distinct way of seeing the world. It will also help photographers figure out their next step photographically -- from deepening their own unique vision to the process of discovering and making a long-term project that they're passionate about, as well as the process of how long-term projects evolve into books and exhibitions. A workshop for serious amateurs and professionals alike, it will be taught by Alex and Rebecca, a creative team who often edit projects and books together -- including their book and Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, exhibition, "Violet Isle: A Duet of Photographs from Cuba." They will teach the workshop with David Chickey, noted book designer and the creative director of Radius Books. David collaborated with Alex and Rebecca on their joint book, "Violet Isle," on Alex's recent book, "The Suffering of Light," and on Rebecca's upcoming book, "My Dakota." The National Museum of Singapore is a venue partner of this photography workshop.

TO APPLY: Please email 10 small jpgs (72 dpi; 8 inches across on longest side) and a short statement about your relationship to photography (Please not more than 250 words, and include it as a WORD doc. if possible). For photographers who are working on a long-term project, please submit photographs from one project you are passionate and statement about this project. PLEASE SUBMIT 10 JPGS AND WORD DOC TO: webbnorriswebb@gmail.com [1].
